

AFTER YOU READ

Put your thinking
in your own words.

It's interesting that...

I want to remember...

I noticed...

What matters...

What's important here...

This information makes me think...

This is important because...

AFTER YOU READ

Put your thinking
in your own words.

It's interesting that...

I want to remember...

I noticed...

What matters...

What's important here...

This information makes me think...

This is important because...

AFTER YOU READ

Put your thinking
in your own words.

It's interesting that...

I want to remember...

I noticed...

What matters...

What's important here...

This information makes me think...

This is important because...

Main Idea / Summarize

Good readers identify the most important idea about what they are reading. They look for details that support their thinking and summarize these details in their own words.

BEFORE YOU READ

What does the title make you think this is going to be about? What do you already know about this?

DETERMINE IMPORTANCE

What is the most important idea in the text? Find a sentence that expresses it.

SUPPORTING DETAILS

Look for important details in the text that verify and support the main idea. What are some key words in the text?

Main Idea / Summarize

Good readers identify the most important idea about what they are reading. They look for details that support their thinking and summarize these details in their own words.

BEFORE YOU READ

What does the title make you think this is going to be about? What do you already know about this?

DETERMINE IMPORTANCE

What is the most important idea in the text? Find a sentence that expresses it.

SUPPORTING DETAILS

Look for important details in the text that verify and support the main idea. What are some key words in the text?

Main Idea / Summarize

Good readers identify the most important idea about what they are reading. They look for details that support their thinking and summarize these details in their own words.

BEFORE YOU READ

What does the title make you think this is going to be about? What do you already know about this?

DETERMINE IMPORTANCE

What is the most important idea in the text? Find a sentence that expresses it.

SUPPORTING DETAILS

Look for important details in the text that verify and support the main idea. What are some key words in the text?

